And interest is what makes dollars grow—safely.
 Of course, if you have saved money, you have it on interest—it not in gold securities, then certainly in the bank.
 Surely you are not one of those who use shot bags, stockings, tin cans and pots as depositories. If you are, you'll eventually be sorry.
 It's far better to be safe than sorry.

We pay 4 per cent interest—100 per cent SAFETY.

Mr. W. F. Woolfolk has been appointed deputy treasurer and will collect taxes in Stone wall district. Mr. D. A. Conner will collect in Clover Hill and Southside.

At a meeting of the tobacco growers here last week, Mr. Howard Marshall was elected president. He is one of our best farmers and is enthusiastic in the work.

Hixburg
 Very few farmers around here have burned any plants and I hear quite a number say that they do not expect to use any guano this season at all as they figure eight barrels of corn to pay for one ton fertilizer and that the difference without it will not be equal to the cost and that they will have to do extra work to pay the guano company and that it will be more business to leave it off. Others say they are going to use it very light.

True enough they had better figure before they buy at present prices.

The Briscantine boys, prosperous farmers near Prospect lost a fine eight-room barn of tobacco last week. I also hear that Mr. Charlie Bagby near Hollywood had a like loss one day last week, but managed to save most of the tobacco from the burning building.

Mr. Editor now that Senator King, of Raleigh, has declared that all lovers of Bolsheviki should move to Russia, should he not also include in his edicts those who are diverting our public school books from true American type to cater to the whims of the Papal press to move to Rome.

The Experiment station of Blacksburg is having a busy week treating tobacco seed and why if we are not going to plant any this time? It looks as if someone is going to try to be humbugged again, but we farmers are by tobacco like we are by politics. We have furnished the other fellow the gun and ammunition to hold us down and now it is getting so if we move we are shot at and we find ourselves entirely helpless.

We hear lots said of late in regard to the boys and girls pig clubs, but as yet I have not noticed where any of them had killed a porker weighing over 500 pounds and I would vote that our county agent, Mr. Byrne, nominate Mr. T. F. Covington, of Hollywood, as an honorary member of the Hollywood club, since he has the destination of having killed the largest hog in this county this year, weighing 518 pounds.

Mr. J. W. Davis has just returned from a visit to Richmond.

A large number of our farmers went to Appomattox Saturday to join the Tobacco Growers Association, but they were one week too early, now boys go again on this coming Saturday and have this club more polished, but to my notion better have one thing amputated.

Forest View
 Good morning! How are you feeling after another big snow last week? There has been several cases of sore throats and bad colds in this neighborhood but most of them are better.

At a No. 10 Cheatham, near Spring Hill, was on the sick list last week with sore throat. Mrs. Luther Foster, at Spring Hill, had tonsillitis, but all are improving.

We are sorry so many people were disappointed Sunday by no preaching at Central Baptist church. We suppose the preacher could not get there on account of the bad roads.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ford were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Martin Sunday.

We are glad Miss Pauline Marshall is improving after her recent operation in Richmond, also little Frazer Woolridge is getting along nicely in Lynchburg and hopes to get home in a short while.

Mr. David Marshall who has been working in W. Va., is now on a visit to his home folks here.

We are sorry Mrs. Hanson Sr. is so ill at this writing.

Mr. Rexford Martin, of Cape Charles, Va., is expected home today to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Puckett entertained a few of the young people last Tuesday night with music and dancing in honor of Miss Mattie Farrar, of Evergreen.

Correspondents let us hear from you often.

Harris-Walton
 "Grove Farm" the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Walton was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on the afternoon of January 26th, at 2 o'clock when Miss Evelyn Walton became the bride of Mr. Willis Ewart Harris. The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was softly and sweetly played by Mrs. J. W. Walton.

The bridal party entered the parlor and advanced to the altar, and there amid a large circle of friends and relatives, Rev. Leroy Lee Banks of the Methodist church performed the ceremony. The only attendants were Miss Mary Walton, sister of the bride and Mr. Carrington Bolton, Miss Ruth Harris and Mr. Dallas Walton.

The bride was becomingly attired in a tailored suit of mid night blue with accessories to match. The groom wore the conventional black.

Miss Walton is one of Appomattox fair young ladies and has a large circle of attached friends and relatives. The groom is a prosperous farmer of the lower end of the county. Their popularity was attested by the many and useful presents.

After congratulations and good wishes they left for the home of the groom.

THIS WEDDING DAY
 Arise Sweet, and arise. It is thy wedding day. May peace and happiness be thine.

Thy wedding day has dawned. Arise and taste the last few drops.

Remaining to thy life. So short is single blessedness. So pure and free of strife.

Thick with on this last day sweet maid. Of things that are to come. May love reign in thy life supreme.

Alas the looked for hour has come. Thy friends are gathered there. To listen to the solemn oaths. Each others life to share.

Vera
 We are having real winter weather in these months and plenty of snow.

The weather has been so hot I don't think there are many parents sending their children to school.

Mrs. Milton Reynolds has been quite ill since Christmas. We hope to hear of her early recovery.

Mrs. J. R. Austin, after spending some weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carter, has returned to her home in Grove, Va.

Mrs. Charlie Turner seems to improve very slowly.

We are glad to hear of Mr. T. P. Robertson's family improving.

Mr. J. E. Robertson is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robertson.

Work seems to be very dull in the cities now and the people are coming back to the country to spend the winter. We are in hopes work will soon open up again.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Coleman are all smiles, it's a boy.

Mrs. Tyler Coleman has been quite ill for the past weeks. We hope she may soon be well again.

Mr. Author Shockley and family have moved to their new home and we hope they will like it all right.

Mr. Sam Moore gave a dance at his home at Tower Hill last Friday night.

Push Fence will please sign his or her name to correspondence.

Tobacco growers are urged to attend the farmers meeting here next Saturday.

Cards have been received here announcing the marriage at the bride's home in Richmond, last Wednesday of Adeline Margaret Howerton to John W. Fore. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Howerton, and is also a grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Spencer, of Spout Spring. Mr. and Mrs. Fore will reside in Richmond at the conclusion of a wedding tour.

Mrs. A. C. Allen
 Mrs. A. C. Allen, of Prospect, died after a lingering illness on January 25th. She was preceded to the grave just six months by her husband. The burial was from the M. E. church, conducted by her pastor Rev. J. J. Ponton, assisted by Rev. Moser, pastor of the Methodist church. There was a very large congregation present. The choir sang "Nearer My God, To Thee," "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and "A sleep in Jesus." Mrs. Allen was 67 years old and a charter member of Davis Memorial Presbyterian church. She is survived by 12 children, Mrs. N. B. Davis and Miss Saddle Allen, of Prospect, Misses Susan and Pearl Allen, of Maryland, Miss Louvina Allen, of W. Va., Messrs. C. A. Hamlet, J. D. Dwyer, Colin, and Lavelle, of Prospect, and Oz Allen, of Fredway Hill, and one brother, Colin Hamlet, of Farmville. The floral offerings were very many and beautiful.
